Instructional Methodology:
Lecture, problems, and cases.

Performance Evaluation and Grading:
Student performance evaluation may be based on case write-ups, group presentations, final exam, and research paper. A sample of the relative weights of each of these components is as follows.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Component</th>
<th>Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Case Write-ups</td>
<td>400</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Group Presentation</td>
<td>50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Final Exam</td>
<td>100</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Research Paper</td>
<td>100</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total</td>
<td>550</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

A letter grade will be determined based on the percentage earned of total points possible, as follows: A: 90-100%; B: 80-89%; C: 70-79%; D: 60-69%; F: 0-59%. In some instances, a curve may be applied in determining letter grades.

Oral and Written Communication Content:
Oral and written communication will be practiced by way or class discussion and written answers to homework during the course of the semester. In addition each student will be part of a group presentation of a case during the semester.

Technology Applications:
Case write-ups will be word-processed. Spreadsheet applications should be utilized when possible to enhance the analysis. Group presentations will utilize powerpoint and other appropriate presentation technology.

Ethical Perspectives:

The behavioral aspect of accounting information will be highlighted in this course. Accounting information impacts strategic decisions that may have ethical content.

Global Perspectives:

The focus of this course is the United States; however, formal coverage of international topics is included where relevant.

Demographic Diversity Perspectives:

This course will not specifically address the issue of demographic diversity.

Political, Social, Legal, Regulatory, and Environmental Perspectives:

The impact of these perspectives will be examined in terms of the financial accounting standard setting process.

Attendance Policy:

Students are held responsible for class attendance and are advised that excessive absences may adversely affect their grades.

Academic Honesty:

University students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the highest standards of academic honesty. Academic misconduct for which a student is subject to penalty includes all forms of cheating, such as illicit possession of examinations or examination materials, forgery, or plagiarism. (Plagiarism is the presentation of the work of another as one’s own work.)

Code of Ethics

This course, and all other courses offered by the College of Business (COB), requires all of its students to abide by the COB Student Code of Ethics (available online at www.cob.tamucc.edu). Provisions and stipulations in the code are applicable to all students taking College of Business courses regardless of whether or not they are pursuing a degree awarded by the COB.

Disability Statement
The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please call or visit Disability Services at (361) 825-5816 in Driftwood 101.

If you are a returning veteran and are experiencing cognitive and/or physical access issues in the classroom or on campus, please contact the Disability Services office for assistance at (361) 825-5816.
