Environmental, Health & Safety

Environmental Specialist:

Preferred Qualifications: Bachelor’s Degree in environmental science, life science, chemistry, geoscience, or related field, Certified Hazardous Materials Manager, proficient in GIS.

Responsible for the maintenance and implementation of a University level Environmental Management System to include disposal of Hazardous and Universal Waste, Storm Water Management, Spill Prevention Control and Countermeasures and a Facilities Response Plan. Maintain environmental compliance reports, certifications and plans. Responsible for environmental program development, education and training, record keeping, filing required reports, managing permits and inspecting campus facilities and operating practices. Respond to campus emergencies, chemical and oil spills, fire alarms. Assist with development of emergency response training and drills. Perform other duties as directed.