Agreement Governing the

(NAME) Endowed Scholarship

between

ABC Foundation

and

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi

The following sets forth an agreement between ABC Foundation ("Foundation") and Texas A&M University–Corpus Christi ("University") with regard to the purpose and administration of certain gifts to the University.

1. Name of Scholarship- The (NAME) Endowed Scholarship.

2. Purpose of the Scholarship- The scholarship(s) awarded from this Endowment is intended to assist deserving full-time students pursuing a bachelor's degree from the University.

3. Awards Selection Criteria- The scholarship(s) will be awarded to a Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi full-time undergraduate student(s) who (1) are pursuing a bachelor's degree, (2) have a minimum 3.0 grade point average, and (2) demonstrate financial need. The scholarship(s) may be renewed if: (a) recipient(s) reapply for scholarship program, and (b) maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0. If at any time any of the selection criteria in this paragraph are not satisfied, the scholarship(s) will be awarded to another qualified student who is deemed to best meet the criteria.

4. Amount and Administration of Awards- ABC Foundation pledges an initial gift of (SAMOUNT) that shall be placed in the endowment. Proceeds from the endowment shall be awarded annually beginning in the fall semester of 2008. The University may, at its discretion, accept additional gifts to this endowment.
5. Fund Management Provisions- It is recognized that circumstances may arise in which it may not be feasible or appropriate to administer this fund in accordance with one or more of the requirements or criteria originally established. In the event the University determines that such circumstances exist, then, at the discretion of the University, such funds and the income there from shall be used for the benefit of Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi in such manner as the University deems appropriate, taking into consideration the original intent of the donor.

If for some reason the endowment shall fall below a minimum size deemed appropriate for the operation and administration of a separate endowment fund by the University, the assets of the endowment may, at the discretion of the University, be added to one of the other funds then administered by the University. Further, should the endowment fail to generate adequate funding, the University is authorized to reinvest earnings until such time the balance is adequate to continue funding. Should an amount not be awarded, the earnings will be returned to the endowment for reinvestment.

6. Donors' Bio and Intent Statement- The (NAME) Endowed Scholarship was established (DATE) by ABC Foundation of Corpus Christi, Texas. The donors’ bio and intent statement are attached to this agreement.

AGREEMENT GOVERNING THE
MARGARET MARY MILLER ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP
between
The Miller Family
and
THE TEXAS A&M-CORPORUS CHRISTI FOUNDATION

The following sets forth an agreement between the Miller family and The Texas A&M-Corpus Christi Foundation ("Foundation") with regard to the purpose and administration of the Margaret Mary Miller Endowment to Texas A&M University—Corpus Christi ("University").

1. Name of Scholarship. The Margaret Mary Miller Endowed Scholarship.

2. Purpose of the Scholarship. The scholarships awarded from this endowment are intended to assist deserving students majoring in Education. Special consideration will be given to students who graduated from Roy Miller High School.

3. Scholarship Recipients Selection. The scholarship(s) will be awarded to Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi students who are worthy and deserving full-time undergraduate students- (a) pursuing a degree in Education or teacher certification; (b) who graduated in the upper quarter of his or her high school class; and/or (c) currently hold a minimum GPA of 3.0. Additionally, primary consideration will be given to students who graduated from Roy Miller High School. Secondary consideration will be given to students who graduated from high schools within the Corpus Christi Independent School District. The scholarship(s) shall be awarded in accordance with the guidelines established above and then in use by the Foundation in consultation with the University. The scholarship may be renewed annually if the recipient: (a) reapplies for the scholarship program and (b) continues to meet the selection criteria set forth in the preceding sentence and (c) maintains a minimum GPA of 3.0. If at any time any of the selection criteria in this paragraph are not satisfied, the scholarship will be awarded to another student who is deemed to best meet the criteria. The family of Margaret Mary Miller will be notified when a scholarship is awarded.
4. Amount and Administration of Awards. The initial gift of $50,000 was received by the Foundation prior to April 14, 2006. The fund is open ended and the Foundation may, in its discretion, accept additional gifts to this endowment. No distribution of scholarship funds shall be made until one year has passed from the date of establishment in order to allow earnings to accumulate in anticipation of making the scholarship awards.

5. Fund Management Provisions. The net income and capital appreciation of the Endowment, and to the extent the Foundation deems it advisable, the original principal, after an appropriate allocation of Foundation overhead and administrative costs, shall be used in accordance with the guidelines established and then in use by the Foundation in consultation with the University’s scholarship program.

The property comprising this gift may, for investment purposes, be merged with other investment assets of the Foundation, but shall be separately accounted for at all times.

It is recognized that circumstances may arise in which it may not be feasible or appropriate to administer this Endowment in accordance with one or more of the requirements or criteria originally established. In the event the Foundation determines that such circumstances exist, then at the discretion of the Foundation, such funds and the income there from shall be used for the benefit of Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi in such manner as the Foundation deems appropriate, taking into consideration the original intent of the donor.

If for some reason the Endowment shall fall below a minimum size deemed appropriate for the operation and administration of a separate endowment fund by the Foundation, the assets of this Endowment may, at the discretion of the Foundation, be added to one of the other funds then administered by the Foundation for the benefit of Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi. Further, should the Endowment fail to generate adequate funding to award scholarships, the Foundation has the authority to reinvest earnings until such time the balance is adequate to continue funding scholarships. Should a scholarship not be awarded, the earnings will be returned to the Endowment for reinvestment.
6. Publicity Statements Approved by Donors.

The Margaret Mary Miller Endowed Scholarship was established in 2006 by the family of Margaret Mary Miller.

Mrs. Miller was a native of Oklahoma City and a graduate of the University of Oklahoma. She was married to Jim Miller for 35 years and had three sons, David, Mark and Kelly.

Mrs. Miller moved to Corpus Christi in 1960 and was a teacher in the Corpus Christi Independent School District for 20 years. She taught school at Roy Miller High School for 10 years.

This scholarship will assist deserving students attending Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi who are pursuing a career in teaching. Special consideration will be given to Roy Miller High School graduates.
