Transfer of Credit
In addition to the general Transfer of Credit Policy, the following regulations will apply to master's degree course work: No more than twelve semester hours of graduate level study may be transferred. All transfer work must be appropriate to the degree being sought. Specific programs may limit the number of transfer courses allowed to less than twelve. Please consult the college for additional information on transfer credit.