Orientation
at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi

Freshman Students
New to college or less than 30 hours

Transfer Students
With 30+ credit hours

Graduate Students
Pursuing a Master's or PhD

For International Students
Information for international students

For Parents
Information for parents

Contact NSP

Mission Statement
Orientation is a program designed for incoming students at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, and reflects the University's collective effort to provide care and instruction to admitted students that will facilitate their transition to and continued retention at the Island University. In addition to aiding their transition, the program also serves to prepare new