DEAN, COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, a Hispanic-Serving Institution with approximately 9,100 students, is seeking applications and nominations for the position of Dean of the College of Liberal Arts. The Dean must have a strong commitment to general education and support the College's role as a key contributor to the nationally recognized first-year learning communities. The growing College serves approximately 2,160 undergraduate students and 185 graduate students, employs 84 tenured/tenure-track faculty members, and offers undergraduate degrees in Art, Communication, Criminal Justice, English, History, Music, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology, Spanish, and Theatre. Master's degrees are offered in Studio Art, Communication, English, History, Psychology, and Public Administration. The College offers one terminal degree, the Master of Fine Arts in Studio Art.

Candidates must have: 1) a terminal degree in an academic discipline appropriate to the College; 2) an established record of teaching and scholarship that would qualify for a faculty appointment at full professor within one of the departments in the College; 3) proven success in significant civic engagement and resource-building and; 4) effective leadership experience in higher education administration at the level of department chair or higher.

Review of applications will begin September 10 and will continue until the position is filled. A complete file consists of a letter of application addressing required and preferred qualifications (see full ad also available on our HR website); curriculum vitae; and names, e-mail addresses, titles, and telephone numbers of five professional references. Materials should be sent to:
