Graduate Studies

How to Apply

Before Applying:

- Why Graduate School at TAMUCC?
- Information for International Students
- Select a program suitable for you
- Graduate School Catalog
- Review the Admission Requirements and Deadlines Guide
- Events and Recruiting Schedule
- Schedule an on-campus visit
- Attend the Graduate Studies Open House
- Browse the Grad Guide
- Request more information

Application Checklist:

- Complete an application form

  (Duplicate applications can cause delays, please complete only one of the following)
  - Complete the Graduate Studies online Application Form or
  - Download a paper Application Form or
  - Fill out the Apply Texas online Application Form
- Submit your Statement of Purpose (grad guide) required
- Request your Official Transcripts required to be sent (grad guide)
- Pay your application fee ($50 for US citizen, $70 for International Students) required
  - If your application fee is outstanding, pay by credit card here
- Submit your Letters of Recommendation (grad guide)
  - Request an Online Letter of Recommendation
  - Complete an Online Letter of Recommendation
- Submit your Standardized Test Scores (grad guide)
- Review the Admission Requirements Handout and the Graduate School Catalog for Additional Documents required by your program

---

http://gradschool.tamucc.edu/howtoapply.html
After Applying:

- Track your application by calling us: 361-825-2177 or e-mail gradweb@tamucc.edu
- Apply for a university scholarship
- Visit the S.A.I.L Student Portal to register for classes
- View or print the New Graduate Student Navigation Quick Guide

Website subject to change:
The provisions of this website do not constitute a contract, express or implied, between any applicant, student, or faculty or staff member of Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi or The Texas A&M University system. This website is for informational purposes only. The university reserves the right to change or alter any statement herein without prior notice.