Dropping a Course while remaining other courses

A student dropping a course or courses yet remaining enrolled in the University for at least one course on or before specified date may be subject to a 100% refund of applicable tuition and fees as follows:

- Spring 2009
  - Drop on or before...... January 30, 2009
- Summer I 2009
- Summer II 2009
- Fall 2009

Withdrawing from All Courses for the Term

A student officially and completely withdrawing from the University during the semester may be subject to a refund of applicable tuition and fees according to the following schedule:

- Spring 2009
- Summer I 2009
- Summer II 2009
- Fall 2009

A review of accounts is done at the conclusion of the withdrawal refund period to insure proper payment of tuition and fees. Refunds will be processed after each audit. Withdrawals are calculated based on the total tuition and fees not the amount paid. Refunds are available in three forms, paper check, direct deposit or OneAccount Debit Card. To find out more information about the Higher One Refund Process go to http://www.easyrefundcard.com/, you can also click on Higher One Refund Card on the previous page. Also your billing, permanent and local addresses must be current in order to receive all vital information. Please update your addresses on SAIL or with the Office of Admissions & Records.
